August Means Used Book Sale Time

For avid readers in the Alliance region, August means one thing – the Friends of Rodman Public Library’s annual used book sale.

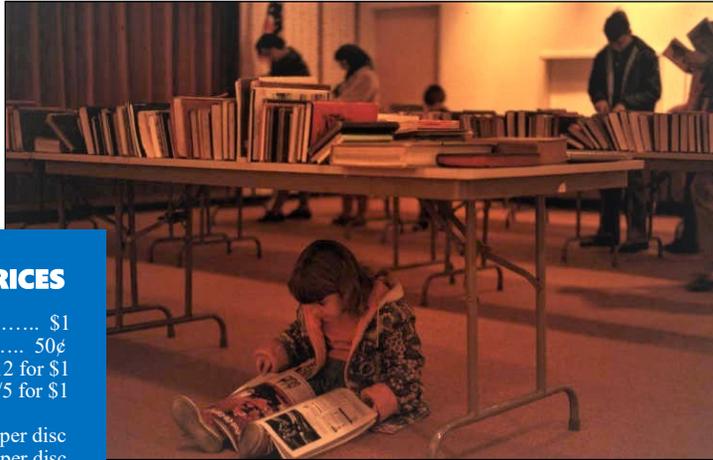

Held in conjunction with the Greater Alliance Carnation Festival, the sale will run from Saturday, August 6 through Wednesday, August 10.

For the second straight year, it will be held at the Alliance Neighborhood Center, 405 S. Linden Avenue. The site is located at the corner of High Street and Linden Avenue, just a short walk across Arch Avenue from Rodman Public Library where parking will be available.

A large variety genres are available, including a large selection of children’s books.

Prices for books increased slightly from last year, the first increase since the 1980s, which places the Friends of Rodman Library’s sale in line with others.

As usual, the sale kicks off on Saturday during the festival, which will be August 6 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and will be for Friends of Rodman Public Library

The used book sale has been around longer than the Friends of Rodman Public Library. This photo was taken 50 years ago during a sale in 1972 – six years before the Friends of RPL was established. The identity of the girl in the photo is unknown. If you know who she is, let us know.

Summer Movie Series concludes August 1

Rodman Public Library’s Summer Movie Series concludes on Monday, August 1, when Moana is shown on the big screen in the Children’s Program Room at 5:30 p.m.

The 2016 American computer-animated musical adventure film tells the story of a strong-willed daughter of a chief of a Polynesian village who is chosen by the ocean itself to reunite a mystical relic with a goddess. When a blight strikes her island, the girl sets sail in search of a legendary demigod, in the hope of returning the relic and saving her people. It is 1 hour and 43 minutes long and is rated PG. The movie is free and the library will provide popcorn to those attending.

No registration is required to attend, but children under 13 must be accompanied by an adult caregiver.

For information, call 330-821-2665, ext. 107.

Visit RPL at Days in the Park for a chance to win an iPad

All area residents who visit the RPL table inside Miller Pavilion during the Greater Alliance Carnation Festival’s Days in the Park will have the opportunity to enter a drawing for one of two new Apple iPads – one for those over 18 and one for those under 18.

Rodman Library staff members will also be handing out other giveaway items, while supplies last, as well as information about programs and services at the library.
